A BRIGHT FUTURE!

Westley Hazel ~ Minister @ Forrest Park Church of Christ ~ Valdosta, GA

The last few years have been rough for the world and Latin American Missions, but the future is bright! There are still lost souls in this world, and LAM is as committed as ever to doing everything within our power to get the Gospel into their hands. Many of the things we have hoped for and prayed about for many years are beginning to take shape; and we want to share a couple of those things with you.

First, we are thrilled to share with you that Cary Gillis is joining the LAM team as Director. Cary is a highly respected gospel preacher who has spent the last thirteen years working as the pulpit minister in Southern Texas. He has a passion for lost souls and evangelism at both the local and foreign levels. On top of all that, Cary is an all-around great guy. All of this means that if you have questions or concerns about the work, Cary is your guy. He would love to talk with you and help facilitate your congregation be involved in taking the Gospel to Latin America. If you would like to have a LAM representative come and share his passion for the work, Cary would love to pay your congregation a visit.

Second, Campaigns are back! A medical campaign is taking place in Honduras as I write this editorial. We have faced two years of cancelations, disappointments, and government regulations that have stopped large groups from traveling overseas. We fully expect to have a full campaign schedule ready for you by mid-October 2022. You can start preparing your members now to consider taking a week in the Summer of 2023 and take the Gospel into Latin America. If you have been in the past, then you already know what a great opportunity this is. If you have never been on a LAM campaign, seek out those who have gone. I am confident you will be encouraged by just listening to those who have gone.

These two things set us ALL up for positive news to continue flowing from LAM. These and other announcements are exciting because they are about so much more than staffing solutions and travel plans. They are about lost souls being found and continuing the mission of Jesus to seek and save the lost. I look forward to seeing you in Latin America!

"BROTHERS, I DO NOT CONSIDER THAT I HAVE MADE IT MY OWN. BUT ONE THING I DO: FORGETTING WHAT LIES BEHIND AND STRAINING FORWARD TO WHAT LIES AHEAD, I PRESS ON TOWARD THE GOAL FOR THE PRIZE OF THE UPWARD CALL OF GOD IN CHRIST JESUS."

COLOMBIA UPDATE

by Fernando Ospina in Medellin, Colombia

Greetings from Colombia, brethren, where the Lord's Church continues to make progress with good works despite the disruptions our entire world experienced in 2020 and 2021. A Future Ministers Training Camp (FMTC) took place in June 2022. We also had a Discipleship Workshop for the brethren. Then, on a personal level, my family shared the joy of my son, Daniel Ospina, and his bride, Karoline Davis, getting married on June 18. The event took place in San Andrés, Colombia, where she is from and is an active member of the Church of Christ.

Brother Fernando Toledo conducted the Discipleship Workshop with the participation of Brothers Fredendall and Johnny Hinton. All of them were from the United States. A group of sisters, Liliana, Paola, and Erika were in charge of teaching the women. The workshop aimed to have us better prepared to announce the virtues of the One who has called us out of darkness into His admirable light.

In July I had the opportunity to visit several congregations in different regions in Antioquia with Brothers Paul Fisher and Nacho Bram. Together we taught important Bible lessons based on Romans 12. Thanks be to God and your support, this beautiful labor, according to God's will, will continue for the strengthening and growth of the Church of the Lord in Colombia.

Future Ministers Training Camp

For the FMTC, we had a group of around 60 brethren, most of them young men. After the training, they were equipped with good Bible tools for evangelistic labor. There were several baptisms, because among the attendees there was a small group who had not yet been immersed in the waters of baptism.

A Shepherd Speaks

LAM is a Ministry of God

by Don Garner, Elder at Forrest Park

Recently, I heard a presentation at PTP on the “Ministry of God, Studies in 2 Corinthians” by Hiram Kemp. His seven points of what God meant to the Apostle Paul and his ministry are particularly meaningful as they relate to our understanding and motivation for our own ministry in the Lord’s Kingdom, especially in LAM. When we embrace these points, they will ensure us of not becoming discouraged, ineffective, or losing heart in our service. It will also keep us on a smooth path and out of the ditches, one on each side of the road, as we navigate through our lives of service.

Understanding that our ministry is the ministry of God, we must avoid the Ditch of Excessive Pride. Excessive pride leaves God out of the picture, either partially or completely, and our bar of success will always run low because we are focused only on what we can do. Our faith in God necessitates a growing faith in our brethren. Because God is the supreme factor in our ministries, success always causes our faith in God and others to grow...unless we are in the ditch of excessive pride. The ditch on the other side of the road to avoid is the Ditch of Low Esteem due to our own pity, fear, and failure. Because God’s ministry is not incorporated, it is doomed for failure because God is left out. We fail to see how God can use us even in our limitations. When you study the life of Paul, the Apostle had his own limitations. But in spite of those limitations, he knew his success resided in the fact that his ministry was God’s ministry. Paul was God’s “workmanship,” and the Lord’s strength was made perfect in his weaknesses. (2 Cor. 12:9)

Just like Paul in 2 Corinthians, the LAM work is grounded in our faith in God. LAM’s success is seen in the seven points found in 2 Corinthians:

- 1) God is our merciful comforter. (1:3-4)
- 2) God delivers. (1:8-10)
- 3) God keeps His promises. (1:20)

- 4) God leads us to victory. (2:14-15)
- 5) God completes us in our suffering. (3:5)
- 6) God strengthens us. (12:8-12)
- 7) God is our source of love and peace. (13:11)

Because of God’s presence in the ministry of LAM, we actively communicate our desire for partners and express how we value participation and involvement of others. As we consider the scope of the work in LAM, the mutual conviction and commitment of other members of the Lord’s Church are essential in accomplishing the Lord’s mission statement. We solicit and instruct men to become ministers in the Kingdom, and we actively encourage them as we support them financially, emotionally, and spiritually in their work because we have faith in them. Because of our faith in God, we want to be accountable in our stewardship and submit to each other as we submit to God. Our goal in LAM is to present Gospel Opportunities for every member of the Lord’s body.

Therefore, the Forrest Park Eldership welcomes Rafael Paguaga to serve in LAM with new responsibilities. He is a 2016 graduate of BSA and has served as a translator and instructor on campus for six years. During this time Rafael took online courses in Greek from Freed-Hardeman University. He recently graduated from the University in Panama City, Panama with a degree in Psychology.

Rafael and his wife, Gabriela, are from Honduras where his father has served as a minister of the Gospel for many years. In LAM Rafael will help organize and coordinate campaign/mission trips within the countries and coordinate BSA Alumni Relations with the Eldership and our new Director of LAM, Cary Gillis. He understands our Biblical Focus Points and is learning the essential dynamics of our LAM team. The Eldership believes Rafael will be an asset in accomplishing our mission statement. We commend him and have assurance that you will find Rafael a joy to work with as you partner with LAM.

Pray with us for Rafael as he begins this new ministry with God and LAM!

“Oh, Yeah! I’m In!”

CARY GILLIS, NEW DIRECTOR OF LATIN AMERICAN MISSIONS

I was raised in the church. I'm related to “Raccoon” John Smith, one of the Cane Ridge Restoration figures, and some of my mom’s family goes back even before the Restoration Era. My dad was a preacher, so when I began my college studies at Faulkner University, I decided that was the route I was going to go. After graduation at Faulkner, I went to Freed-Hardeman University for graduate studies. That's where I met Westley Hazel, the current preacher at Forrest Park. Afterwards, I preached part-time and finally ended up in South Texas for the last 13 years. The congregation is bilingual in English and Spanish. There were two ministers, one English speaking and one Spanish speaking. I served as the preacher, a youth minister, and the college minister. Being single, I had an opportunity to take on a role that I wouldn't normally have been able to fulfill. During those years I had several young men who came and lived with me. None of them had good family lives. Most of them didn't have Christian fathers. I was able to provide deep, long term, mentoring opportunities for a lot of young guys in the church.

LAM had not been on my radar, but my friend, Miranda Smith, called one day and said, “Hey, I've been on some campaigns, and you have bilingual people there. If you can recruit them, then we'll have more translators and be able to have more evangelizing teams!” I took four translators on our last campaign to Peru in 2019. The church took ownership of the work, especially the ones that felt they were serving a special role. It's been a cool thing seeing the involvement going with LAM. Partnering with others on the YES II campaigns transformed our congregation. It lit the fire under people, and they returned home totally different. That's something I've witnessed and want to be a part of.

When COVID hit in 2020, we were planning to go to Panama. We're not a big congregation, but we had nine people going and even more translators than before. Then, Spencer Broome passed away. We were sad and disappointed, and missions were put on hold. A lot of people were anxious to get back to work. Miranda called me up and said, “Hey, let's just do our own campaign; you know, let's go!” That was outside of what I thought was possible. I was kind of a deer in headlights. Then, Westley Hazel contacted me and said, “How would you like to help out with LAM in a more full-time role?” Knowing how LAM has a track record of helping to transform congregations both in Latin America and in the United States, it really seemed like a no-brainer. It took about 24 hours for me to see the big picture. I thought, “Well, I'm a preacher and that's what I do, but I don't know about this.” Then, I realized my fulfillment doesn't really come from being in the pulpit; it comes from saving the lost, equipping people for the work of ministry, and growing the kingdom. I realized that LAM was the opportunity to do that, and I would help bring that kind of transformation, edification, growth, and equipping for evangelism on a larger scale.

At the top of the Latin American Missions' values is creating Gospel Opportunities to do the Lord's work, opportunities to take the gospel, and opportunities to be transformed by the Gospel. I know I'll have opportunities to preach as I go along. One of the things I have learned about the big picture of LAM is the Bible School in Panama, and it has a track record of growing congregations. That school produces preachers who go back to their native homes and plant churches. The campaigns help to jump-start, reinforce, and edify. All that works together to build up the Church in Latin America and in the United States. The big picture is really a beautiful and powerful thing, and I am excited! More specific goals are being dictated by the big picture. For example, one of my tasks is to cultivate a list of faithful men to lead campaigns or to grow into that role. Rather than asking how many campaigns John Farber and I can do in a year, let's ask questions that make sure we're all on the same team and bring campaigns to a higher level.

My Elders want me to fill the role as Minister of Foreign Evangelism at home. I can promote the Forrest Park congregation as a model for missions to other congregations. We're at a point where we want to help others do what we're doing. If we can see a bigger picture of what LAM does, then we can see other congregations replicating what Forrest Park does as the vehicle for LAM. Instead of sending a check somewhere out of a sense of duty, they'll see something that is an effective work and have a direct effect on sponsoring and supporting congregations. Let me show you how you can help build up the Church in Latin America, and I will show you how it's going to help you grow here. I have already experienced that in a small way as a participant in the campaigns.

Having no preconceptions about working with LAM, I don't have in my mind a certain way things need to be done. Being an outsider helps to bring clarity to what's lacking. My goal is to grow the kingdom, save souls, and edify the Church. My goal is to be effective and let go what is not effective. I've been praying about just listening and learning so that I can make good informed decisions.

Everybody remembers their first campaign and their last campaign, and the middle ones seem to melt together. I observed something during my very first campaign that made me go, "Oh yeah, I'm in!" I remember it like it was yesterday, but it wasn't me. The greatest effect I witnessed was from my secretary, Araceli, who went to translate for me. She'd always wanted to do something like that, but never thought she'd have the opportunity. When she got there, she was totally in her element. I saw her fulfilling her purpose in the kingdom in a way that she didn't know was possible.

At the end of the week I knew there was something I would share with congregations when I talked to them. What we witnessed on a campaign was the church working at a 100% participation, where everybody had a job to do. They were ALL working, and they ALL wanted to work. When you see that, you realize it is possible to do it back home, too, where you have people passively being a part of the church. Instead, everyone has a purpose, everyone knows what they're doing, and they are happy to do it. No one ever says, "No." Everybody says, "Yes, I'm on board." When you witness the church working at a 100% for the first time, it just changes your whole perception of what you think is possible at a local level.

Elio Quiróz Jr. and wife, Estefania "Fanny" González, (former secretary of BSA) currently live in the western province of Chiriquí, Panama. Being the local minister at Los Andes church of Christ (membership: 60), Elio has been full-time supported by the local congregation to serve in evangelistic efforts, teach Bible classes, preach sermons from God's word, and be a spiritual encourager for others. His excitement after seeing the ongoing growth and maturity of the congregation with his own eyes has been one of the most impactful experiences he's been blessed to witness in his ministry.

While Fanny is about to receive her college degree in Forensic Sciences, Elio's plan is to strengthen the leadership of the congregation and, afterwards, travel abroad to receive more in-depth spiritual training in Bible along with Fanny. "The doctrinal and personal training at BSA," said Elio, "has been one of the best things that prepared me for the work of the ministry."

His smile was unmistakable among the group of students even when covid hit BSA. Eduardo García and wife, Dafne Thalia Jimenez, have three children: Neydy (13), David (10), and Evelin (9). They are living at San Vicente, Chiapas, Mexico. Eduardo is working by himself and experiencing the challenges of being the new preacher in town. "I go to work early in the morning and finish around 2:00 PM," he explains. "Then, I meet with my family, and we start door knocking together to share the gospel with the people."

This year there have been four baptisms and 13 restorations. All are now worshipping God in San Vicente. Eduardo is working shoulder to shoulder with Jaime Montejo (2020 BSA graduate) to spread God's word. Eduardo's vision is to prepare a young man from San Vicente and send him later to BSA to be trained and then continue the work in the area. "There is an older Christian in another town who's offering us a field to construct a building and start a new congregation over there," says Eduardo, "but I won't leave this place without having someone else well trained who can teach the Bible and be responsible to the brethren after I'm gone."

Ladies

Women Training Women

Verónica Pinto ~ Instructor of Women at BSA

My name is Verónica Pinto. Simión Vásquez, an instructor at the Bible School of the Americas, is my husband. God has blessed us with two precious children, Gamaliel and Dan Bezaleel. We are members of the Church of Christ at Panama Downtown where I teach other ladies and children. Also, I coordinate with two other ladies the Monday Devotionals for all the sisters at the Bible School of the Americas. Thanks be to God in September of this year I will graduate from Nursing School.

For the first time several women, including me, teach classes to the BSA students' wives. We are so honored and happy for this opportunity that came as a result of feedback from many sisters who attended the BSA together with their husbands. We are grateful to Agenor Rudas and Kirk Brothers for listening to our requests and to the Elders for allowing us to have a more active role in the training.

Five sisters participated in a course on the books of Ruth and Esther from July 4 to August 12. Every Thursday we spent two and a half hours in class together, allowing ten minutes at the end for the students to explain what they learned. Their tasks included memory verses, outlines for sermons, class participation, exams, and defending two research papers at the end. Their interaction with questions and comments brought good dynamics to the class. We extracted practical teachings from the Bible text to apply to our lives. Both Ruth and Esther were women that God used for His purpose.

OUR LIVES MUST BE A POSITIVE INFLUENCE LIKE QUEEN ESTHER, A WOMAN OF GREAT COURAGE WHO INTERCEDED BEFORE THE PERSIAN KING FOR HER JEWISH PEOPLE.

They were courageous with great faith and trust in God. The sisters have said they feel more confident, and they have learned new things. In God we trust to be open to His wisdom and carry on this important labor for His glory and honor, of course, and also for the edification in leadership of our sisters.

We are so encouraged to be serving in this way. I am convinced that our contribution will be able to help our sisters in the ministry that God has given them to be teachers for the children, young people, and other sisters. I've told them they are to help great things happen in this life, as long as they keep their eyes on Jesus, the author and master of our faith. Our work in the Lord is not in vain. There are great sacrifices to be made. I shared with them that when I studied at the BSA, one of my teachers was my husband. Gamaliel was six months-old, and Simión would hold our son while I was receiving lessons in his class.

Please, brethren, keep us in your prayers for all the students here, their families, and the instructors, that every year from this institution, the men and women are faithful, trained, and have a great desire to go preach the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ to the world. And pray that we, as wives, are the ideal complement for the ministerial development of our husbands.

Teaching Apologetics 1

Adjunct
Instructor

Dr. Mike Houts is a staff scientist for Apologetics Press who holds a Ph.D. in Nuclear Engineering from MIT and serves as the Nuclear Research Manager for NASA's Marshall Space Flight Center.

This past June I was blessed to teach a class on "Christian Evidences" at the Bible School of the Americas. I was extremely impressed by the students and their families. Their competence, enthusiasm, and eagerness to evangelize was a tremendous encouragement! Each day started at 7:30 AM with a student leading a devotional. We then had classes throughout the day and a break for dinner around 5:00 PM. Following dinner we would watch a DVD related to Christian evidences with additional discussion the following day. The students have a very high level of energy which is contagious to say the least!

In previous years before Covid, the Bible School staff arranged seminars at area universities. With reduced Covid restrictions, they hope to be able to do so again in future years. The Bible school students typically arrive at the university at least an hour early, giving them the opportunity to meet university students and staff and to invite them to the seminar or additional Bible studies. The topic of "Christian Evidences" can be very important to university students because that is often the time in their life when they will be challenged by fake science (such as "Evolution" and the "Big Bang" theories) or other arguments contrived to weaken their faith in God and the Bible.

The staff at the Bible School of the Americas is phenomenal. Francisco makes us teachers feel extremely welcome, even inviting them into his home and providing transportation to and from the airport! Rafael is an exceptional translator, handling very technical subjects with ease. Simeon, Agenor, and others also do everything they can to provide encouragement and make the school as effective as possible for all.

In short, teaching the Christian Evidences class at the Bible School of the Americas was very encouraging and motivating for me! The Bible school continues its outstanding work in teaching and training preachers and evangelists for spreading the gospel throughout Latin America and for leading many to Christ!

Perspective of Second Year BSA Student, Jacob Smith, on Dr. Houts as an Adjunct Instructor...

"My impression is in the highest regard for the capacity and preparation of the classes he brings to us. We know it is not easy. His disposition brings us to value the resources he shares in the class. His knowledge is impactful and prepares us to share with others who need the information. The collaboration of the students, when being asked to participate, makes the class more interesting. Those topics or areas that are new to us, come to light with the students' interventions, and it is a great help. They aid us with the interpretation, making it easier to understand the topics discussed."

Peru

HELP NEEDED TO COMPLETE A BUILDING PROJECT

by John Farber, LAM Missionary

The Church in Huaral, Peru was started in 2011 with a medical campaign led by Jack Farber. Yens Nima was invited to work with the Church in Huaral in 2012 with the second medical campaign there. The Southwest church of Christ in OKC agreed to pick up Yens' support. He has been the preacher in Huaral since that time. Yens Nima is a graduate of BSA. He is married to Amelia, and they have two daughters. He is the son of Juan Nima and Yolanda. Juan preaches in the Los Rosales congregation in Lima. Yens has two sisters and a brother. Both sisters, Yellmi and Dina, are married to U.S. citizens. Dina's husband is a preacher in South Florida. Yen's brother, Juan Jr., is currently at BSA in his second year.

It hasn't been an easy road. Yens has had to move his family back and forth to Lima several times. His youngest daughter has had many health problems over the years. In 2016 I visited Huaral at Yens' request. I visited the church building where he and his family were living. The building was divided into two sections with three rooms. One section was large and used for worship. The second section had two rooms. One was a 20 x 15 room where the family lived, and the other was used for the children's class. I was asked to visit Huaral because the building was being sold out from under them and they wanted help in raising money to buy the building. We made a push to raise the money but ultimately fell short.

With the money that was raised, we purchased a piece of property with hopes of building on it one day. That day came in 2019 when a good brother from Alabama contacted me in hopes of funding a building project somewhere in Latin America. I suggested Huaral. I knew the Southwest congregation had money designated for missions, and their missions' deacon wanted to get the building built. We worked to get things going and gathered the money, the building plan, and the contractors. Then Covid hit, and everything stalled for almost two years.

The building was properly started in late 2021 and is roughly 80% done. It has two stories and an accessible rooftop. Yens has done an admirable job with the project, and Amelia has been an amazing help and knows as much about the building as Yens. They have spent nearly $7,500 of their own money through loans to get the building to where it is now. The congregation has given nearly $5,000 in materials, food, and services to the building effort.

We have been offered a matching donation up to $15,000 to help complete the building. We need your help to get this project across the finish line. Please contact the LAM Offices today! URGENT!
