Coming into His Glorious Labors

It was our Lord Jesus Christ who said these words, "Do you not say, 'There are yet four months, then comes the harvest'? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest. Already the one who reaps is receiving wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor." John 4:35-38

For almost sixty years, the Bible School of the Americas located in Panama has earnestly worked to fulfill what Jesus metaphorically told His disciples when He was visiting Samaria, saying that one was man's vision, but another was that of God's. The fields were white, not to plant, but to harvest. They all were going into their labors. Some had planted and it was now their turn to harvest.

It is beautiful to know that men and women from countries all over Latin America come to the BSA with the ardent desire to be part of this great labor...training for two consecutive years in education, science, and Bible. They leave filled with knowledge, motivated and joyful to return home to preach the Gospel and encourage spiritual growth in their brothers and sisters. The six graduates on Saturday, December 3, 2022, were from four countries.

Honduras: Carlos Valladares and his wife, Melissa Ochoa

Dominican Republic: Norberto Valdez

Panama: Edgar Martínez and his wife, Delmira Abrego

Panama: Jacob Smith

Peru: Jaime Ancori and Juan Nima, Jr.

We wish God will use them as great Servants for the glory of His eternal Kingdom. On the other hand, nine future graduates start their second year of studies. Two are from Mexico, four from Nicaragua, one from Peru, and two from Panama.

Francisco Gonzalez
Instructor
Bible School of the Americas

Beginning this year of 2023, we have a total of twelve new students:

Four from Honduras: Carlos Irías; Jair Ramírez; Leodan López; and Orvin Méndez

Three from Nicaragua: Orlando Rojas and his wife, Rebeca; Hector Martínez and his wife, Karen Saavedra; and Herlin Carrión.

Four from Panama: David Abrego and his wife, Carolina; Augusto Blandford and his wife, Fulvia; Sipriano Santiago and his wife, Elvira; and Zaqueo Castillo.

One young man from Peru: Ishmael Pinedo.

To our God, we pray fervently. And to you, dear reader, we make a strong plea to become an active participant in the lives of those who are training to go into the fields for harvest. We ask you to help and pray with us that every day there are more and more knowledgeable workers going into the glorious white fields for the great harvest and that the Bible School of the Americas continues the formidable mission until Christ returns.

Teaching “Galatians”

Adjunct
Instructor

BSA Student Body ~ November 2022

It was my sincere pleasure to teach the book of Galatians during the week of November 14-18, 2022 at the Bible School of the Americas in Panama. The length of Galatians allowed a verse by verse examination of the text. Students were asked to turn in a notebook of notes taken during the week, prepare a research paper on an assigned topic, submit either a textual or expository sermon outline from the text of Galatians, complete a memory work exam on selected verses from Galatians, and complete a final exam on Friday afternoon. The students were especially active in discussing the North or South Galatia theory, which was also one of the possible topics for the research paper. They clearly understood the process of examining all the evidence for both positions and several were very vocal in defending one view or the other. I have consistently been impressed with the dedication of the teachers at the Bible School of the Americas with both the work and the Truth. Each class of students has its own personality, varying degrees of questions, comments, and general camaraderie. But, I always feel they will be returning to their home areas prepared and enthusiastic.

I had the opportunity to speak on Sunday morning at the congregation which meets in the former children's home. The sermon was "Members' Responsibilities to Elders." Upon the invitation of Jose Rodriguez, I was privileged to present the same lesson on Saturday, November 19, in an expanded form to a group of brethren from various congregations gathered in Margarita (Colon), followed by a 90-minute session of questions and answers. On Tuesday of that week, I spoke at the BSA students' evening devotional service on the topic of "We Are Family," comparing the church family and the biological family.

Steve Johnson, Minister @ Lexington, KY

Steve has taught Bible courses at BSA since 2010: Greek Words (6), Jewish Customs (5), Leadership (1), and Galatians (1). He traveled to Panama and taught in-person with the exception of two years, 2020 and 2021 due to Covid, when he taught via ZOOM.

Rafael, who has been my translator for the past several years, assisted me during the class, the worship service, and with transportation throughout the week. I cannot say enough good things about Rafael. He is not just a brother, he is a special friend. Francisco once again picked me up and delivered me back to the airport, taking me by a grocery store for a late-night food & bottled water run. Though his English is limited and my Spanish is limited, he communicates good will and makes sure my needs are met. On Thursday, I had lunch with Simion and his family in their home. Simion and I first met in 2003 during a medical mission to Puerto Armuelles. I look forward to this annual event since the North Lexington church has helped support Simion and his family for many years.

Carlos Candellero, BSA Perspective of a Second Year Student

The development of a person is closely linked to their knowledge which in turn allows them to carry out their daily activities. Likewise, Bible training at BSA plays a fundamental role and prepares students to correctly interpret Bible verses which by divine inspiration came to faithful men who recorded them in the Holy Word. These lessons will later be presented to the students' home congregations. Such training is completed by Latin instructors (Panama, Costa Rica, and Honduras), and foreign instructors (United States). The role of the U.S. instructors is of the highest importance. Their teachings open our minds to gain different viewpoints in the topics they teach. We know these men have gone through great adventures in their daily lives. Many times those who help in the teaching of a class are elders in churches in the United States. This brings the students' interest to a different level as we know they carry on their shoulders many responsibilities for the souls of those in their congregations and the wisdom with which they perform their duties.

Recently, Bro. Steve Johnson visited the campus at the Bible School of the Americas. He came to teach a course of his expertise, "Letter to the Galatians." The activities and the teachings of the course were very enjoyable. It is not difficult to capture the central idea of the classes. However, the difference in languages seems to cause a barrier that interferes in the reception of the message, even though the interpretation given by our brother translating facilitates the teaching-learning process. During the presentations, time is allowed for dialogue between teacher and student which generates a link of trust and therefore, a better development of the class even though it is a large group. Personally, I consider more frequent participation of these brethren could benefit the BSA students greatly.

I give thanks to God for the opportunity of getting to know them and shake their hands. Likewise, I thank Him for planting in their hearts the willingness and ability to travel on a mission to teach nations in need of their knowledge.

Returning to the Field to Evangelize!

Don Garner, Elder @ Forrest Park

Excitement is flowing here at Forrest Park as we prepare to return to Panama on an evangelistic campaign in May. This YES II campaign is the first since 2019, and our group has many things to do to get ready for the trip. Our number of participants so far is 53, but this may grow before the deadline.

These campaigns are critical to the overall work in Latin America as it gives our local congregation an opportunity to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ in a foreign country. It allows us to experience the difference we can make as we impact the growth of the Church. We can put the sweet faces of fathers, mothers, and precious children in a different culture in our hearts which gives us purpose in doing foreign missions. While working an area where the Gospel is taken, it most often changes the campaigner from the inside out. The relationships created and strengthened between Christians here and abroad can not be measured because our love and concern for one another is multiplied in ways impossible to quantify.

Yes, we are excited to begin both YES II and Medical Campaigns again in 2023 because we are called, not only to be blessed, but to be a blessing. (1 Peter 3:9) This is what these evangelistic campaigns are all about! One of my favorite passages that peeks into the heart of the great missionary, the Apostle Paul, is found in 2 Corinthians 4:3-7:

"But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing, whose minds the god of this age has blinded, who do not believe, lest the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine on them. For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ourselves your bondservants for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who commanded light to shine out of darkness, who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us."

*May this be the motivation of all our campaigners and the reason we support
LAM in all our efforts to GO!*

New Year Resolutions

How Are You Doing?

Frank Williams, LAM Fund Raiser

New Year's Resolutions. It is not a bad idea to make resolutions. Losing weight, getting in shape, eating healthier, etc., are all good resolutions to make. While a lot of you are focused on keeping your New Year's Resolutions, I would like to challenge you to add some resolutions of a spiritual nature to your list. In addition to the types of resolutions I mentioned above, as a Christian, it would be a good idea to make sure our plans are centered around the things of God and His Spirit.

Have you noticed in your Bible readings that God has always had a plan? It seems logical to me that we, His children, should have a spiritual plan as well, such as studying the Bible, teaching others, attending worship service, giving of our financial blessings and sharing the love of Christ with others. These, of course, are not tied to a calendar but can be renewed daily. We get a fresh start every single day to begin anew!

About 38% of the people in the United States actually make New Year's Resolutions. By the time this newsletter reaches you, some of you are continuing to follow through with the resolutions you started at the beginning of 2023 ... Good for you! A lot of you may have already given up on your resolutions. I'd like us to take the following chart and put a positive spin on it.

Success can be Achieved!

Setting goals that are attainable...not too easy, but not so difficult that they are impossible to reach would be a good start. One thing to remember is that we are all in different places on our spiritual journey and these goals are personal to each of us.

My good friend and brother, Dr. James Dalton, a professor at Freed-Hardeman University, shared several thoughts on setting resolutions and was kind enough to share much of his data with me. In his presentation recap, he stressed SMART Goals which are often used in business, mental health, education, nutrition, and several other areas. Below is a chart that suggests how to successfully accomplish your goals:

S M A R T

Let's resolve to pray for one another to accomplish our resolutions/goals and grow closer to the Lord in 2023!

Ladies of LAM

Preparing the Next Generation

Melissa McFerrin

The purpose of this trip was two-fold: a Future Ministers Training Camp for young men conducted by Kirk Brothers and Chuck Morris and a Ladies' Teacher Training Camp for young women, a new venture and the reason I got to tag along. Víctor Bonilla's daughter, Amanda, and many others worked tirelessly in the months leading up to the camp, securing a location, recruiting volunteers, buying food, arranging transportation, and printing materials. Registration closed with 74 participants from seven congregations. Kirk, Chuck, and I came to teach and encourage the attendees.

Our gracious host for the week, José Herrera, was full of information about the whole country of El Salvador, but especially Apaneca. The town sits at about 4,800 feet above sea level. The name means "River of Wind" in the Uto-Aztec language of Nahuatl, and we certainly experienced some cool, gusty weather. Gorgeous gardens surrounded our site. Further out were lush green mountains, some of them volcanic, that were crisscrossed with coffee plantations. Apaneca is a popular tourist destination, and it's easy to see why.

The camp began on Monday afternoon with an orientation session and a devotional, followed by dinner and a time of songs and games. The next three days followed a rhythm of devotionals, meals, split classes in the morning and afternoon, and group classes in the evening. I enjoyed playing dominos and card games with campers in our free time. The theme was based on the book of Acts. The boys learned to prepare and present a sermon, while the girls learned to teach Bible classes. The girls were divided into four groups and tasked with developing a lesson for children, complete with songs and activities to reinforce the lesson. I was blessed to teach the split class for young women on Tuesday after-noon. Although my Spanish is passable, I am nowhere near fluent. I was nervous about speaking publicly in a second language. But they helped me, and we all learned together – which was appropriate because my assigned topic was "The Teamwork of Women in the Church!"

On Thursday morning, Nathaly Ayala who lives in Apaneca took us to see the town and the church building. They are in the process of adding a permanent baptistry. This congregation is one of two in the country to have elders. Many of the members work in the local coffee industry. We stopped at a coffee shop owned by the family of Ricardo, one of Apaneca's elders. Chuck and Kirk sampled their brew. In the afternoon, the boys preached their sermons to their group while the girls taught their children's lessons to the ladies. It was beautiful to see everyone participating. I was so impressed with their preparation, courage, and desire to learn this way of serving God. We also had some good laughs when the audience decided to ACT like "children" in a class! The day concluded with an awards ceremony. Everyone received a certificate, and we took many pictures to remember this special week.

A few of the women in Apaneca talked to me at length about the condition of the church in El Salvador. Please pray for our brothers and sisters there who need endurance, loving kindness, and unity. It is a beautiful country filled with beautiful people who need Christ just like everyone else. My hope is that during this week we played a small role in preparing the next generation of Christians to live out the gospel in their homes and churches.

Carlos Daniel Valladares,
Melissa Ochoa & family
Honduras

Carlos was the 'Honor Student' of his class. As he returned to Honduras, Carlos taught his home congregation a class on "The Importance of Economically Supporting the Local Ministry." Currently, Carlos worships with the church of Christ in Monterrey, Tegucigalpa, one of the oldest and largest congregations in Honduras. He has been blessed to find a part-time job where he teaches the Bible at a primary school. His wife, Melissa, is an artist in making Pinatas and gifts. Together, they support themselves and their two children, Jonathan and Samir.

Agenor Rudas, Director of BSA, graduation. Rafael Paguaga translation.

Edgar Martínez,
Delmira Abrigo & family
Panama

Edgar Martínez came from and is now working with the church of Christ in Las Mañanitas, the congregation where Esteban Rodríguez preaches. After his graduation, Edgar has gone back to secular work in order to support himself and his family. He helps the church with their worship to God with song-leading, presenting sermons, and teaching Bible classes. Edgar is also involved in the leadership of the congregation.

Jaime Ancori
Perú

Jaime Ancori worships with the church of Christ in San Borja, Lima, Perú. Currently, he is collaborating with sermons and involved in evangelism. Jaime plans to live in Lima until April 22nd. Then he hopes to return to his hometown, near the famous Machu Picchu, where a congregation of the Lord's church waits for him to become their new local minister.

Jacob Smith worships with the church of Christ in San Cristobal, Bocas del Toro, Panamá. Being a young Timothy, Jacob is involved in the local congregation that will soon celebrate their 52 years of existence in Bocas. Jacob is helping the church design an annual workplan that involves the men and includes topics about the Bible according to age. Being a single young man, Jacob plans to further his secular education as he serves the Lord with all his strength.

Jacob Smith

Being the son of a preacher, Juan Nima Jr. has gone back to Perú and serves with the church of Christ in Los Rosales. Living with his family as a single young man, he is working full-time teaching the youth group, teaching the men about leadership and the need to appoint elders, organizing an annual workplan for the church, and helping with sermons, classes, and evangelistic efforts alongside his dad, Juan Nima, Sr. Juan is also learning about suffering as a minister at a young age and is growing to become the man that will take up the baton that his father will pass to him as they both transcend into new chapters in their lives. Together, they are seeing the fruits of working together as they seek the lost in Lima, Perú.

Norberto is our first graduate who took the entire BSA Bible class program through Zoom. He is from the Dominican Republic and collaborates with the church of Christ in Valle Encantado, Santo Domingo. Currently, Norberto is serving in preaching the word to the congregation. He is also a great help to the local minister in doing evangelism. Norberto has a plan in the future to establish a new congregation in the Santo Domingo area, the capital of the country.

BSA Hosts Future Ministers Training Camp

January 23-27, 2023

Report by: Simion Vasquez, BSA Instructor

Number of Campers: 55 Baptism: 1
Non-Christian Campers who received special study, How to be Saved: 14
Number of counselors: 5

On Monday morning the campers settled into their rooms together with their counselors. Lunch was served at noon, and the program began with a devotional by Elio Quirós. An overview and purpose of the camp was given along with some regulations. Francisco González, BSA Instructor, presented the first lesson, "Let's Determine in Our Hearts to Remain Close to God." The campers were assigned to one of two groups: the Timothy group went with Alexander Monroy, and the Titus group went with Esteban Rodríguez. Both instructors taught a class on "HOW TO PREPARE A SERMON."

Bocas del Toro area brought the most numerous group, followed by Colón. Many congregations paid for the transportation of their young people to participate in this camp. I was very pleased with the participation we had in this camp. Good service attitude! On Tuesday we started with breakfast and a devotional. José

Rodríguez gave a lesson on "Determine in Our Hearts to Never Stop Congregating." Then, the campers split to work separately in their Timothy and Titus groups. The lesson for both was, "The Organization, Illustration, and Practice of a Sermon."

In the afternoon, Elio Quirós presented a lesson on "Song Leadership." Afterwards, they enjoyed sports and dinner. Finally, I gave a lesson on "Being a Leader in Your Youth Group!" One of the things that stood out about the campers is the effort they put in the classes and comments given every day. There is a lot of promise in each young person who came. Some expressed to me that they want to come soon and study at the Bible School of the Americas. That is what we want with this program. Glory and honor be to God!

BSA GRADUATES ARE GOING INTO ALL THE WORLD

BY RAFAEL PAGUAGA ~ BSA ALUMNI RELATIONS

Alejandro Ampie was acknowledged by BSA as the “honor servant” student during the Dec. 2021 Graduation, the first graduate with this acknowledgement in BSA history. After two years serving at the Andres Castro Church of Christ in Nicaragua, Alejandro came back to Panama and married Marleny Valencia. They both visit and serve at the Chilibre church of Christ, a congregation of 40 to 45 faithful members where Alexander Monroy (BSA 2015 graduate) serves as the local preacher. Alejandro participates at the Chilibre congregation by sharing sermons, teaching classes, and leading songs, but has become involved in working with different Zoom meetings where he invites preachers from all Central and South America to spread God’s word.

“The Bible School of the Americas formed me with sound Bible principles during my two years of studies. This helped me do the Lord’s work during covid-19 back in Nicaragua and instructed me to understand the commitment of getting married,” says Alejandro.

Alejandro Ampie

“True Servant Leader”

[2020-2021 Class]

A man with a spirit of joy and cleverness, Ronald Díaz works full-time with the congregation at Jicaral, Nicaragua. The membership varies between 20 and 23 Christian members. Ronald has been teaching classes, doing evangelism, preaching sermons, and developing programs for church benevolence. Ronald is an empathetic preacher and uses this virtue to challenge the membership to increase their faith. Ronald’s vision is to look for opportunities and invite other preachers to work together every March for the next five years in evangelistic campaigns in Jicaral. Ronald’s been working with the congregation to improve their church building and longs to meet in a safe and appropriate place. Ronald’s wife, Veronica Montes, helps with teaching the children of the congregation. She and their three children, Luis Fernando (17), Alejandra Díaz (13), and Fátima Isabella (7), support Ronald as he tries to spread the good news in Nicaragua.

Medical campaigns are a unique experience. We set up a medical clinic for 4-5 days as a means to show compassion and to help open doors for evangelism. Every patient that we see is given an opportunity to study the Bible at the end of their visit. It has been an effective tool for planting churches for 40 years. Medical campaigns have many jobs that need to be done, giving everyone an opportunity to participate in the evangelistic process.

Chimbote, Peru (June 2-10) is a large fishing town. Set on the northern coast of Peru, it is a growing community full of young families. We helped Armando Gomez plant the church in 2019 with a medical team.

Honduras (July 8-15) will be another medical campaign. We are still finalizing the location for this campaign, but we have narrowed it down between Nagarejo and Zambrano. Nagarejo would be a new church plant. Zambrano is an existing congregation, but rather new and still very small.

Life-Changing Experiences

Take the opportunity this summer to edify the church, spread the gospel, and sharpen your faith. Come and work with me on one of three YES II campaigns I'll be leading. I will give you practical evangelism training and then send you out into the community with your own team to make contacts and have Bible studies. No matter your age or experience, you can play a vital role in bringing the gospel to souls in Latin America. You will return home excited and equipped to jumpstart the evangelistic work at your home congregation.

Penonome, Panama (May 27th-June 3rd) has a small-town feel. Imagine a tropical Mayberry from the Andy Griffith show. Herminio Gonzalez is a 1989 graduate of BSA and has been preaching in Penonome for twenty-six years.

Valle Risco, Panama (June 16th-24th) is a village nestled in a jungle valley on the Caribbean. Gilberto Blandford is a 1991 graduate of BSA and has been preaching in Valle Risco for ten years.

Ica, Peru (July 14th-22nd) is a larger desert city on the Pacific. Paulino Chalco is a 2002 graduate of BSA and has been preaching in Ica for twenty years.

Come with me on an adventure that will change lives, including your own.

In 2018 YES II went to Upala, Costa Rica. During that campaign, we had 12 baptisms and 4 restorations. It was a great trip! We are going back to Upala just like Paul in Acts 14:21-28. As a missionary, he returned to locations to check on the church and help continue to make more disciples (Matthew 28:18-20). That is exactly what we will do on July 21-29th in Upala, Costa Rica. We will strengthen the Brethren, check on the new converts from the 2018 campaign, and find new hearts to teach the gospel to (Luke 8:11ff). Please join me as we teach the lost of Latin America and train our youth how to conduct a Home Bible Study.
