A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR:

It is an honor to be leading this team! I am so thankful you are part of the LAM family! If you're a first timer, I want you to know that you are embarking on a life-changing experience. God is glorified in your choice to seize this opportunity to bring the gospel of Christ to souls in Panama.

The purpose of this campaign guidebook is to give you the information you need to prepare for the campaign, explain some best practices that will make this experience easier, and answer most of the questions you have and many questions you didn't know you needed to ask. PLEASE READ THIS ENTIRE BOOKLET THOROUGHLY. Part of being a good team member is being informed and on the same page with the group. If you see any information repeated, that's because it's important. Foreign travel can be stressful and unpredictable. So, one of the most important virtues you can bring with you is FLEXIBILTY.

In the package with this guidebook, I have included two things for every individual team member to bring: contact cards and "Does It Matter?" Bible study booklets. I will give instructions about each of these. I am no longer including LAM luggage tags. Just make sure all of your bags have adequate tags with your information.

Thank you for taking this gospel opportunity with me! May God be glorified in this work!

- Cary Gillis, Director of Latin American Missions

CAMPAIGN SCHEDULE

Friday, May 31st

Arrive at the Tocumen International Airport (PTY) in Panama City, Panama. Each of the two terminals has a place to go through immigration. It may be that you will deboard at one terminal but be on an airline that requires going through immigration at the other terminal. If you are not sure, ask. Present your passport to the immigration officer. Pick up your bags and go through customs, where you will present your customs form. (You are in Panama on tourism status.)

I will meet you at the airport. Wear your team t-shirt, so you are easy to spot in a crowd. If you do not see me, I am probably escorting others on the hotel shuttle and will be back ASAP.

We are staying at the Riande Airport Hotel on the first and last night of the campaign. I have made all of the lodging and travel arrangements ahead of time.

Saturday, June 1st

8:00am – Leave for David. It is about a 7-hour drive. We will stop to eat around the half-way point. That evening, we will go to the church building to go over the evangelism plan, divide up into teams, and eat dinner.

Sunday, June 2nd

Note: Sunday morning will have a translated worship service.

[Download the Ministry League App. We will use this as our songbook.]

9:00-10:00am Bible Class

10:00-11:00am Worship

11:30-1:00pm Lunch at the church building

1:00-5:00pm Evangelism

5:00-6:30pm Dinner at the church building

EVANGELISM IS WHY WE ARE DOING THIS

This week will be evangelism-training-focused. I will be training the group in evangelism basics, along with the training we will have "in the field." In this package, I have included "Does It Matter?" Bible study booklets and contact cards. Every individual in the group needs to familiarize him/herself with these and bring them.

"Does It Matter?" Bible study booklet: This is what I am encouraging everyone to use in their Bible studies. I will have Spanish versions you can use. If you would like to purchase some that you can bring and leave there, please do that! This study guide will be recommended and provided, but not required.

- First, the best way to have a Bible study with someone is to have a structured, guided study. It keeps you on track to your study destination. While this is the study I recommend for this campaign, there are many others that work just fine, including study guides that you may create yourself.
- Second, I chose this study because it is easy to use and can teach someone the gospel in a short period of time. Some studies take longer than is feasible to use on a oneweek campaign.
- Third, before you sit down and do a study with someone, take the time to ask them their religious story. Ask them if they think they are saved. If they say "yes," ask them to write down all the details of their conversion: when, where, how, what they said, how old they were, what they did, what they understood, etc. You must make sure you are starting the study where they need you to start it. If they do not believe in God or that the Bible is God's word, you will need to start at a different place. If they do believe these, "Does It Matter?" will be a good place to start.

These QR codes will take you to training videos for how to use "Does It Matter?":

Contact Cards: Keeping good records is vital to effective evangelism, because evangelism fails without having a system to follow-up with contacts. As you meet people, one team member's job will be to keep detailed records: where they live, their names, their religious background, what was discussed/studied, prayer requests, etc. Record all the information you can think of that will make follow-up the most effective. It is ok to write the info in a notebook and transfer it to individual contact cards at the end of the day. Just let the contact card guide which info you're trying to get.

Work Duties: Everyone will either be doing door-knocking or VBS. VBS will likely be in the schools during the day and at the church building at night. Some of you may do VBS or door-knocking all the time, while some of you may rotate work assignments.

PRE-CAMPAIGN PREPARATION

YOU SHOULD ALREADY:

- 1. Be Praying for the success and safety of our campaign.
- 2. Have your passport. (Do you KNOW where it is and when it expires?)
- 3. Sent a color copy/photo of your passport to LAM. A picture from your phone is sufficient. Just make sure it is in focus and there is no glare. Text or email it to me: 334-462-2838 | cgillis.lam@forrestpark.org
- 4. Have bought your plane ticket.
- 5. Have gotten shots: Hepatitis A and Tetanus (Only Recommended)

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO NOW (as in right now. Go!):

- 1. Pray for the campaign: your own spiritual preparation and growth, the people we'll be meeting, the other campaigners, the translators, the local Christians we'll be working with, and me, your campaign leader.
- 2. Send in your Shared Team Expense of $1,300.
- 3. Email your Flight Itinerary me: cgillis.lam@forrestpark.org.
- 4. Start Exercising. Even walking regularly in preparation will make a huge difference when you're walking up and down hills in the tropical heat.
- 5. Friend me on Facebook. Join the YES II Facebook group.

TO DO BEFORE YOU LEAVE:

- 1. Keep praying for the campaign!!!
- 2. Clearly mark each of your bags for travel with luggage tags. (I am not sending you LAM luggage tags.)
- 3. Prepare for your job. Especially if you are going to be involved in evangelism and VBS.
- 4. Read and reread this guide. Do not skim any part of it. It just might save your life.

LAWS OF L.A.M.

Some people call these rules. Others call them commandments. Whatever you call them, they are the only NON-FLEXIBLE part of this campaign. These rules are from the overseeing elders at the Forrest Park church of Christ.

- 1. Do not, under ANY circumstances leave the group. There is never a time when it is ok to go do something on your own. There are no exceptions to this rule. DON'T DO IT!
- 2. Do not part with your passport! It is the only thing that can identify you. Keep it on you at ALL TIMES!!!
- 3. Do not drink the tap water! Do not brush your teeth with the tap water. Do not wash contact lenses with the tap water. In Latin America, tap water is good for two things: bathing and baptizing. You WILL (not might) get sick if you drink the water. REMEMBER: Bad tap water makes bad ice (watch your drinks). There may be some restaurants that serve clean ice and water. If in doubt, ask your team leader or don't try it.
- 4. Do not eat the local fruits and vegetables. Salads are off limits.
- 5. Clothing Guidelines: [NO SHORTS] As followers of Christ and representatives of His gospel, our dress needs to be guided by holiness. We are calling the lost to partake of a holy life. How we dress can either undermine or affirm that message. With this in mind, the Forrest Park elders ask you NOT to wear the following: shorts, leggings, tight-fitting clothing, tanktops, sleeveless shirts, or spaghetti straps. (Mid-calf capri pants are acceptable.) It is to the discretion of the team leader to ask someone to change clothes during the campaign. If you think I'll ask you to change clothes, don't pack it. These guidelines include travel days.
- 6. Do not wear flip flops or sandals except for showers. We will be working in a community where farm animals often roam (even in the capital city). Parasites and disease can easily enter your body through your feet.
- 7. Do not consider any part of this campaign a vacation. You are not on your own time. You are part of a group, and you MUST be a team player.
- 8. Plan to be early and you'll be on time. It is better to wait on others than for others to wait on you. We will be gracious with each other. But understand the selfish nature of choosing to make others late. Ultimately, our time management impacts the time we get to spend sharing the gospel.
- 9. Always follow my instructions, not because you can't do it better but because there are very good reasons for my methods. If you think there is a better way to do something, please discuss it with me so that we can have the most efficient campaign possible. I am all about replacing good methods with better methods.
- 10. If you have ANY problems, I need you to notify ME immediately. I am best equipped to solve problems. I want to do everything in my power to make this a wonderful experience for everyone. Complaining to other team members brings down morale and will not help your problem.
- 11. Pools are for baptisms ONLY. Otherwise, they are off limits.
- 12. Give it your all, every day. BUT when it's time to rest, take advantage. If you need to sit out during work hours, it is better to rest for a few hours than to push yourself too hard.
- 13. Absolute ZERO tolerance for alcohol, tobacco, and non-prescription drug use. You will be immediately asked to leave the team.
- 14. Absolute ZERO tolerance for any illicit sexual activity including the use of pornography. You will be immediately asked to leave the team.
- 15. NEVER flush toilet paper or flushable wipes down the toilet in Latin America. The infrastructure can't handle it. You will probably clog your toilet and make a mess.

THINGS TO BRING AND LEAVE

Here's some recommendations of things you can bring and leave in Panama.

If you bring some of these items (and let me know), I won't have to bring as much stuff!

- Spanish Bibles: Preferably the RVR 1960 translation paperback (lifeway.com)
- "Back to the Bible" (in Spanish) study booklets (gladtidingspublishing.com)
- "Does It Matter?" (in Spanish) study booklets (gladtidingspublishing.com)
- Variety of Spanish Resources (wvbs.org)
- Spanish Song books(starbible.com/himnos-y-canticos-espirituales)
- Children's Bible story books (Spanish)
- Toys/trinkets: inflatable balls, frisbees, stuffed animals, bubbles, etc. (Walmart / dollar store orientaltradingcompany.com)
- Craft supplies: crayons, pencils, pens, glue, tape, child scissors, coloring books, stickers
- Candy: individually packaged so you can give to kids while doing VBS and door-knocking
- Feminine hygiene products

[The above websites are only suggestions. Shop around online to find the current best prices.]

PACKING TIPS

- 1. Consult the website of the airline you will be using to find out what their limitations are for weight, size, number of bags you can carry, and COST.
- 2. Use adequate luggage tags that have your personal information on them.
- 3. Most airlines allow one check-on, one carry-on, and one personal bag. CHECK-ON BAG: This trip is just long enough that travel size toiletries might not last the whole trip. Pack as light as possible in this bag. You can save weight by bringing two of a particular item in travel size. If you bring a regular size bottle with liquid, put them in your checked bag. 50 lbs is the industry standard for this bag. While traveling by plane, this is the only bag that can have sharp items (scissors/pocketknife) and large containers with liquids. (And yes, Miranda, peanut butter counts as a liquid.) There is no need to pack your own supply of water. Bottled water is easily available. There will be water waiting for you when you arrive.

CARRY-ON BAG: Pack at least one set of clothes in your carry-on. If your check-on bag is lost, you'll be glad you did. Also pack your heaviest things (non-liquid) in this bag. There typically are no weight restrictions on this bag. Paper, books, and any heavy materials are ideal for this bag.

PERSONAL BAG: Purses are not recommended. It is recommended to bring a backpack that is comfortable enough and sturdy enough to carry heavy items like Bibles during door-knocking. You will keep your personal /valuable items/medications in this bag.

- 4. LADIES ONLY: Pack personal hygiene products whether you think you'll need them or not.
- 5. Pack light weight clothing that dries quickly. Jeans are not ideal for tropical heat and humidity. This will also help keep your checked baggage from getting too heavy.
- 6. You will have little time or use for hair dryers, make-up, curling/flat irons, etc. Plus, it's just extra weight.
- 7. Snacks: The regular meals may not be enough to keep you going. It is recommended to have snacks for stamina and strength when you're working hard. Many people bring snacks.
- 8. Pro-Tip: Packing one or two outfits in a large zip-lock bag has advantages. This takes the deciding out of what you will wear every day. This keeps all of your clothes dry, as commonly our luggage will be exposed to the elements while traveling. (Our bags will probably be transported on roofs of the busses.) Pressing the air out saves room in your bag. You can just put your dirty outfit back in the bag it came out of.

TRAVEL TIPS

- 1. Check-in to your flight 24 hours in advance. Every major carrier will allow you to do this online or on the app.
- 2. Arrive at the airport especially early for international travel! Plan to get there 3 hours early!! Waiting a long time to board a plane is better than missing your flight! The "My TSA" app gives security checkpoint wait times.
- 3. Check your bags ALL THE WAY TO THE DESTINATION. (PTY)
- 4. Keep your passport on you at ALL TIMES!!!
- 5. While going through security, have no items in your pockets, including belt, hat, and shoes. Wear shoes that are easy to take off.
- 6. For small containers of liquid in your carry-on bag, follow the 3-1-1 principle:
 - You may have only 3 liquid, aerosol, and/or gel items. They must be in 3.4 oz or smaller containers.
 - These items must be sealed together in a $\underline{\mathbf{1}}$ -quart zip-lock bag.
 - You are allowed to have $\underline{1}$ of these zip-lock bags per passenger.
- 7. The money you bring must be "clean money." NO TEARS. NO INK Markings. NO HOLES. NOT FADED. The bills must be in near perfect condition. You may not be able to use your money if it is not "CLEAN."
- 8. Be a good traveling citizen. Delays happen. Flights get cancelled. Bags get lost. Be prepared for the worst and go with the flow. When trouble comes up, it is best to be friendly about getting the issues resolved. Most airline employees want to be helpful when these issues arise. Also, if you packed it, expect to carry it.
- 9. Check and double check your supply of personal medications. It will be difficult to acquire replacements or refills.
- 10. Eating abroad. BE CAREFUL! Some of the best things about going to another country is the different foods you will encounter. But, if it is not "blessed" by the team leader, don't try it! One rule: Boil it, peel it, cook it, or forget it. Leafy vegetables like lettuce are impossible to clean properly, so they should be off your list of things to eat. Water and beverages are also tricky. Do not drink the water UNLESS it is purified, or it is in a place where the team leader has authorized its use. Ice made from bad water is bad ice. Bottled drinks are a safe bet without any problems. If in doubt, DON'T DRINK IT!

BEST PRACTICES

- Keep Hydrated. Drink water often and when you think you've had enough, drink some more. It is VERY hot where we are going. Dehydration can happen quickly. Keep fluids with you at all times. Signs of dehydration: dry mouth, sleepy or tired, thirst, decreased urine output and darker yellow or amber in color, dry skin, constipation, headache, lightheaded, or dizzy. If you notice any of these symptoms... THINK DRINK! Consider using electrolyte drops/powders that you can add to the water.
- 2. VERY IMPORTANT—There is a very good chance that you will be asked by people you meet to help with some "favor" or "need." Many of these are very legitimate and need attention. PLEASE send people with requests to your team leader. Even if you are willing to fulfill that need, please funnel it through your team leader. The reason: We want to funnel all help, money, and other assistance through the local church. This gives God the glory. We want the local people to see the church as a resource for help, rather than the "rich Americans."
- 3. Wear comfortable, sturdy shoes. Hiking boots are not overkill, however, the cost of such boots maybe impractical to purchase just for this trip. I recommend two pairs of shoes, so that if one pair gets wet, you'll have the second pair to wear while the other pair dries.
- 4. Translators—Of all the jobs there are to do on a campaign, translating is probably the most difficult. Show patience and understanding. Translators are few and valuable. All of our translators work very hard, and it is exhausting work, but you will find out quickly that there are some that are more experienced than others. When using a translator, speak slowly and only speak one sentence at a time.
- 5. In Someone's Home—While door knocking, as a citizen of the USA, you will be welcomed into more homes and allowed to stay longer than a native would. You will be welcomed and shown hospitality. People may offer you something to drink and/or eat. It is important to your health that you NOT accept food or water from anyone. Always carry a small snack (crackers, nuts, cookies, etc.) and a bottle of water. Politely decline any offer of food or drink by saying "I have some".
- 6. Always carry either toilet paper or a travel size pack of Kleenex. You never know when or where you'll need to use the bathroom.
- 7. Many people shop for campaign clothes at thrift stores & consignment shops so they can leave them behind for people. This also leaves room for bringing back souvenirs.
- 8. When you have a preacher/translator/local member with you while stopping to buy a drink, snack, or meal, get them something. While they will be given an allowance out of campaign funds for meals, they will appreciate the consideration.

GIVE TO L.A.M.

Many people will find a lifelong passion for missions after having their hearts touched by the amazing people of Latin America. Latin American Missions (LAM) exists for one purpose: to share the Gospel with the people in Spanish speaking countries in Central and South America. We are seed-sowers, but we need your help to be able to do more.

After participating in this campaign, you will realize there is more to do than can ever be done. However, we must do ALL we can. It is through people just like you that we can do more for these precious souls. Most people WANT to leave a legacy of hope for people that they meet; but they may not know how.

There are several ways that you can give to help spread the Gospel to this part of the world:

- 1. Monthly Support: Your Team Leader is part of the LAM staff that is supported by the giving of generous hearts. Also, our school—the Bible School of the Americas—located in Panama City, Panama, is in need of your support. Whether it's $5 or $1500, it will be used with good stewardship to the glory of God. We can arrange automatic withdrawal and even offer PayPal giving.
- 2. Lump Sum Annual Giving: There are times of the year when it may be convenient to give a lump sum (Tax returns, first of the year, end of the year, etc.).
- 3. One-Time Gifts: If you have a windfall of money, please consider giving to LAM, whether it be the sale of a house or car, or an inheritance.
- 4. Estate Planning: Legacy planning is an amazing way to leave a gift that will last beyond your years.
- 5. Congregational Support: We encourage congregations to invest relationships, time, and money into the churches in Latin America. We especially encourage individual congregations to focus on a specific area and congregation.
- 6. If you would like me to come to your congregation and share the gospel opportunities of LAM, please contact me!
